BREAKS A COLD

"Pape's Cold Compound' ends severe colds or grippe in few hours.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops masty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, duliness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and sniffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such a prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine,—Advt. enuine,-Advt.

JEROME ON STAND DENIES MISS ST. CLAIR'S CHARGES

Declares He Took No Part in Conspiracy With Erlanger Alleged by Actress.

The tria lof Edith St. Clair, an ctrees, under indictment for perjury in connection with statements she is alleged to have made through her counsel, Max D. Steuer, in a suit against Abraham Erlanger, theatrical manager, was resumed to-day before Justice Davis in the Supreme Court with William Travers Jerome on the stand. Miss St. Ciair's defense is that she was used as the instru-ment in a conspiracy between Jerome, Erlanger, Assistant District Attorney Manley and others to procure the dis-barment of Steuer because of alleged unprofessional actions in the Erlan-

Gems and Is Made Prisoner Himself.

Signor Eduardo Perera, who lives at the Islian National Club, No. 117 West Forty-eightht Street, telephoned to Police Hendquarers in great haste early this morning or a detective. About $1,000 worth of unset jewels out of his large collection was missing from his rooms.
"Looks like an inside job to me,"

said Detective Joe Daly. "You sechey, what's this?"

"This" was a fine, big, healthy sixcooler revolver, fully loaded.
"Oh, I've had that for years on account of my jewels," replied Signor

Perera, easily.
"Borry," Daly apologised, "but the Sullivan Law is a perfecty good law. Away we go to court."
And in the West Side Court, great-And in the west slee Court, great-ity to his surprise, the signor was held in $500 ball for the Special Sessions. The jewel thief? Oh, that's some-thing else again.

INQUIRY ON JUMP IN WHEAT.

ment Wants Facts on Price Kiting in Chicago Market, CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Federal investi-pation into the present high price of wheat began here to-day to determine whether speculation or attempted "food cornering" has had anything to do with the recent sensational rise in the market. Albert L. Hopkins, Assistant United States District Attorney, who is in charge of the inquiry, summoned a long list of bakers, grainmen, grocers and commission merchants for examination. United States District Attorney Charles and Commission to the charge of the Charles F. Clyne said that the investi-gation would be thorough.

The board of directors of the National Retail Butchers and Grocers' Associa-tion was scheduled to meet to-day to consider the question of the effect of the wholesale prices on the middlemen.
